Dear Mr. Knight:

Re: RLK Farm LLC
Letter of Instruction for Dry Litter Poultry AFO Coverage
Ref. No. MSG20
Rankin County

MDEQ

The above referenced facility has coverage under the previous general permit which expired on January 31, 2019. The Permit Board on Environmental Quality reissued the Dry Litter Poultry Animal Feeding Operation (DLPAFO) General Permit (MSG20) on November 1, 2021. This General Permit authorizes the operation of a dry litter poultry animal feeding operation as well as air emissions associated with the construction and operation of mortality incineration equipment.

A dry litter poultry animal feeding operation that wishes to apply for re-coverage under this general permit should carefully read the summary of the changes and the general permit which are located on our MDEQ website at: <https://www.mdeq.ms.gov/dlpgp/>.

Re-Coverage: To apply for re-coverage, the coverage recipient must complete the enclosed DLPAFO Notice of Intent (NOI) and send it to the address indicated by December 31, 2021. A current Nutrient Management Plan (NMP) must be on file at MDEQ. As explained in the DLPAFO NOI Instructions, there may be other submittals required. If you already submitted a NOI in 2019 to current date, you do not have to resubmit unless there have been changes made since you submitted.

Termination: Termination of the coverage may be requested by submitting a written request of termination to our office, but ONLY if a dry litter poultry operation no longer exists at this location.

If you have sold your dry litter poultry farm then you must provide our office with a phone number and mailing address for the new owner and forward this letter to them. If operation of a dry litter poultry animal feeding operation is ongoing and the farming operation does not obtain re-coverage, then you and/or the new owners will be operating without a valid permit and both will be subject to potential enforcement action. If you have any questions concerning the NOI instructions or the content of the permit, please contact Buster McMillan of my staff at (601)961-5671 or myself at (601)961-5622.

Sincerely,

Tracy Tomkins, Chief
